Re: Alston v. Caraco Pharmaceutical Laboratories, et al. (08 cv 2826) (RWS)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

We represent defendant Caraco Pharmaceuticals Laboratories ("Caraco") in the above-referenced action and write to request an extension of time to answer or otherwise move in response to Plaintiff's complaint. The case is currently pending before the Hon. Robert W. Sweet and we are writing to Your Honor as the Part 1 Judge at the suggestion of Judge Sweet's chambers as Judge Sweet is away until Wednesday and Caraco's response is due tomorrow.

Plaintiff, Ronald Alston, filed this pro se petition against Caraco on or about March 18, 2008. The U.S. Marshal's Service served the complaint on Caraco by mail on May 21, 2008 making Caraco's response due tomorrow. However, the Complaint was not received by Caraco until on or about May 30, 2008 and Caraco needs more time to review the facts and claims alleged before it can properly respond to Plaintiff's complaint. Because Plaintiff is a prisoner, currently incarcerated in Great Meadow correctional facility, we are unable to contact him in sufficient time to get his consent to this request.

Accordingly, we respectfully request the Court grant Caraco an additional two weeks, until June 24, 2008, to answer or otherwise move in response to Plaintiff's complaint.

APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED

John G. Koeltl, U.S.D.J.

cc: Plaintiff Ronald Alston (by mail)

Respectfully yours,
